Employee's department account code combination to be charged for allowance.

Guidelines:

The department must determine that the technology has a business need, that the department has the funds available to cover the allowance and agrees to do so.

University employees are eligible to receive supplemental compensation if they meet all of the following criteria:

1. The employee is required, as part of their job, to be readily accessible for frequent contact or critical contact with the public or with University administrators, faculty, staff, or students; and
2. The requirement for accessibility extends to time away from campus (at home or traveling), involves on-call responsibilities, or the employee's job limits his or her access to regular land-line telephones or Internet access that would satisfy the required business communication needs; and
3. A strong business case can be made that supports the University incurring the cost of the service, and

The employee must retain an active data or cellular service contract as long as the allowance is in place. The employee agrees to notify the department head within 5 days if he or she no longer meets eligibility requirements, fails to replace non-working, damaged, or lost communication devices, or fails to maintain a service plan.

Describe below how having a communication device benefits the University as well as how the job requires ready access for frequent or critical contact with either the public or with University faculty, staff or students:
