Project Background

In January 2010, the University of Northern Iowa will implement the new Oracle Accounts Receivable (AR) module for all non-student accounts receivable transactions. The new process will enable departments to recognize revenue when the invoice is created. It will also allow for better recognition of outstanding revenue due the university.

Some key points are:

- Revenue is recognized when the invoice is created and posted
- Invoices are mailed out daily by Business Operations – saving departments postage
- All payments will be received and processed by Business Operations – saving departments processing time
- Office of Business Operations will be responsible for collections

Departments participating in this module need to complete:

- MEMFIS Authorization for Access (for those signing up after initial implementation)
- AR Transaction Type Set Up Form
- AR Customer Set Up Form
- AR Standard Memo Line Set Up Form (optional)

Departments should be aware of the following documents relating to the new process:

- Non-Student Accounts Receivable Policy
- Business Process Diagram
- Open Invoices at Conversion
